

Moreton City Excelsior Football Club

Committee Position – Compliance Officer

The duties of the Compliance Officer shall be:

- Responsible for the identification and management of regulatory risk of the Club.
- To ensure that Moreton City Excelsior FC has internal controls that adequately measure and manage the risks it faces.
- Support the technical department in their duty to comply with relevant laws and regulations and internal procedures, and maintain documented records of the coaching licences, blue card registrations, liquor licences and any other licence or governance requirements.

